

Diggin'

Diggin' diggin' diggin' deeper.
Diggin' yourself under.

Takes all my effort
To pull to surface
Push aside all the
Failure around me.
I will come back when
I've found my calling,
Shown you misery -
Take you down with me.

I'm thinking about all the things you said and
I'm taking back all the wrongs I righted.
You'll sink to the bottom and see the surface
Brighter from the sun than you ever left it.
